10 Interview Questions

1. What's your favorite way to spend a weekend?
 - a. My favorite way to spend a weekend is by spending time online with my online friends or my real-life friends, depending on who wants to hang out first.
2. Do you have any hobbies that you're super passionate about?
 - a. I am super into a few things, the first being Christianity; I am always looking to be closer to Jesus, and I always want to learn and gain that wisdom. My second passion splits into a few categories: anything related to collecting old consoles, Pokémon cards, or sonic-related merch. I also love photography.
3. What would it be if you could pick one activity to do every day for the rest of your life?
 - a. If I could pick one activity to do every day for the rest of my life, it would be preaching the Gospel to others who need to hear it. This would partially fulfill my dream of becoming a missionary.
4. Are you more of an introvert or an extrovert when it comes to socializing?
 - a. I cannot accurately answer this question; it depends on who I am talking to and the subject. I do not like to speak and insert my “knowledge” on topics I do not understand or know about as much as others.
5. What skill have you always wanted to learn but haven't had the chance to yet?
 - a. I always wanted to learn how to play the guitar or drums. From how often I listen to music, it would make sense to learn how to play it.
6. How do you usually unwind after a long day?
 - a. After a long day, I like to sit down, relax, watch YouTube videos, or play video games.

7. How often do you spend time with other people in the community?
 - a. I attend a church down the street at least once a week, so engaging with the community and my neighbors is easier.
8. What's the most adventurous thing you've ever done?
 - a. The most adventurous thing I have done is travel to a few other states for my photography goals that I set. For example, take a picture of a tree that only exists in a specific state, like the Pacific madrone in Washington.
9. How would others describe you?
 - a. I think others would describe me as funny, respectful, kind, honest, optimistic, considerate, reliable, open-minded, and friendly.
10. What's something that always puts you in a good mood?
 - a. Music will always put me in a good mood; no matter my mood, I can pick out songs that will make me feel way better.
